August 16th 2014: KidSave International

KidSave International mission is to find permanent families and lasting connections for older orphaned and abandoned children worldwide. Kidsave works to increase awareness of the plight of children living in orphanages and foster care, both domestically and worldwide, and promotes successful models for change focused on one result: moving children out of orphanages and foster care and into permanent families and connected, ongoing relationships with caring adults. In the month of August, 31 children from Colombia are in the United States with host families seeking permanent homes. Join

Randi Thompson

Randi Thompson is the Executive Director and Co-Founder of KidSave International. Randi and her co-founder Terry Baugh pioneered the successful Family Visit Model, enabling children growing up without parents to meet and spend time with caring adults in the community, who advocate on their behalf to find them permanent families and lifelong mentors. Randi started the successful Summer Miracles program out of her bedroom office in 1999, and with Terry built it into the gold standard hosting program it is today. Summer Miracles USA has found families for over 80% of the children who have participated in the program. Since 1999 the program has given over 1,700 orphans and abandoned children su
