August 19th 2014:Radically Alive Relationships: From Connection to Communion

with Special Guest Susan Lazer Hart The fantasy of Prince Charming and Happily Ever After create a false foundation for relationship. This fantasy has you... 1. Enter into relationship with false assumptions and false personas. As a result you develop "points of connection" that keep you from being your authentic magical self. 2. Look to relationship as a source of security and status to establish stability in your life. As a result you develop "stability points" that keep you locked in your own cage. 3. Say to each other things like, "Don't leave me," and "Don't change."

Featured Guest

Susan Lazer Hart

Susan is not your typical coach, counselor or therapist, just as you are not a typical client. Her specialty is deep listening, along with an uncanny ability to pose questions that create consciousness and different possibilities. Working with the latest Access Consciousness tools and clearings, Susan can help you make breakthroughs on issues that have you stuck, stymied or bewildered — relationships, addiction, body image, jobs, money, success — you name it. Susan's clients rave about her ability to help them cut through emotional clutter in record time. If you've heard that therapy involves hard work, you'll be intrigued to hear Susan inviting clients to "come and play with me."
