August 27th 2014: Married Entrepreneurs Make A Perfect Pair

Business partners often joke that they're married to one another. What happens when you actually are married to your business partner? Husband and wife Jeremy and Lila Stewart launched flip-flop brand Hari Mari in Dallas two years ago. They knew that combining home life and work life can be fraught with landmines. But just as there are horror stories, there are also successful couples who have built household brands together. Through some missteps, the Stewarts learned to navigate the challenges of working as husband-and-wife entrepreneurs and find balance between their personal and profession
