August 26th 2014: Practical Advice for Handling Life's Emergencies, Annoyances and Inconveniences Part VI

As we've learned over many shows, making assumptions about others being there to help can get us into serious trouble if you aren't prepared. Sometimes you just need to know how to take action yourself. Join us as we get some great practical advice from two experts that know everything about everything. Topics range from handling basic car trouble, to home safety and construction, to emergency first aid.
