August 25th 2014: Making the Right Moves To Improve Your Credit

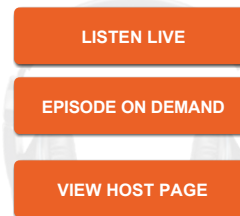

Many people do not understand how the credit system works and therefore make many wrong moves which hurt their ability to get credit at all, or at least at good interest rates. Lynnette Khalfani-Cox, a personal financial author and journalist and editor at AsktheMoneyCoach.com, clears up many of these misconceptions in this interview. She discusses how to deal with debt collectors, how to improve your credit rating and get errors off your credit score, and the best ways to manage credit card debt. Other topics she touches on include the cost of raising children from birth to college, how to cut
