August 28th 2014: Speaking Up and Be Noticed

Deanne takes the mic this week and answers questions from listeners on how to be noticed at work for promotion and taking on greater responsibility. Deanne will address issues like like personal branding, how to deal with others trying to sabotage your success, and how to be business savvy. Deanne also addresses taking a hard look at your attributes and how to communicate those talents to your boss. As a former manager at Fortune 500 companies, Deanne give the straight talk on what managers expect from high potential employees and how you can be considered one of them.
