The buzz: Mobile Finance. Mobile technology can now put a range of sophisticated analytics tools into the hands of your Finance organization to support planning, budgeting, and forecasting on-the-go. Having the agility to create and deliver timely reports on a mobile device sounds exciting, even sexy – right? But as with all innovations, there's work to do before you can reap the benefits. Your executive team needs to really sponsor it, not just pay lip service. Your Finance team has to adopt, adapt, and integrate the right tools into a strong mobile strategy. And you need to train the right
