Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available September 09th 2014: Family Caregivers Tell Your Stories

Lianne Picot is a Story Coach & Consultant. She owns Very Good Stories, www.verygoodstories.com, her business helping organizations and individuals to develop their skills in storytelling. She talks about her life, career and experience with family caregiving. She explains the business and says why she created it. With a story she's selected as an example, she explains what a story actually is, what types of content constitute a story, what a scenario is, and how family caregivers should prepare their stories when their time to tell them is short. With another story she describes the scenario
