American Heroes Network Tuesday at 8 AM Pacific September 09th 2014: Challenge, Triumph and Change

Major Ed was our 1st guest to be interviewed on the American Heroes Network Radio 1/15/2013 on our 1st program

We welcome Major Ed back

In a matter of seconds, under a broiling Iraqi noon sun on Aug. 17, 2004, Major Ed Pulido of Edmond, Okla., saw his life take a 180-degree turn. He was thrust into first battling for his own survival and then dealing with how to rebuild himself.

Major Ed Pulido

Pulido began working with The United Way of Central Oklahoma, and became the vice president of Community Investment and Research. He also served as Community Counseling Center Market and Public Relations director, as Early Head Start Community Partnership coordinator, and as Father Outreach coordinator and Therapeutic Nursery Program administrator. He was involved in providing counseling services for victims of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building bombing and was the United Way staff chair on the Coordinating Resource Committee following the May 3, 1999, tornadoes in Oklahoma City. "We're here to make a difference," said Pulido. "We want people to see how important it is to invest in our v
