September 30th 2014: Trail Riding in Powell River for People with Mobility Challenge

CC Duncan and Raymond Lavoie founded The Powell River Mobility Opportunities Society, <http://www.pmos.org>, in 2010. They were inspired by beautiful landscapes and opportunities for outdoor activities in British Columbia, Canada. They talk about their lives, careers and experiences with family caregiving. They explain why they created the Society, and describe its work. They describe TrailRiders, the ways these are used, the types of trails these are used for, and the people who provide their human power. They discuss the types of mobility challenges TrailRiders serve and accommodate. They gi
