September 25th 2014: Looks Can Be Deceiving

The unwanted labels and stipulations that many in society cast out like a fishing net perpetuate stereotypes can pigeon-hole individuals and discourage them from reaching their full potential. Elvis Stojko, three time World Champ and 2 time Olympic Skating Silver Medalist, joins the program to discuss how he's overcome stereotypes related to his sport. Elvis talks about his recent discovery of the fountain of youth and how it's never too late to embrace new challenges in life. We discuss horse racing, sports wagers and The New York Jets with Councilman Joseph Itrace from Oceanport, NJ. As we t
