October 6th 2014: The Employer's Side of Interviewing

Have you read all the books and articles, but still don't feel like you are hitting a home run during the interview? This week on The Career Confidante, host Marie Zimenoff will be welcoming a guest that will provide the inside scoop on what employers are really looking for in the interview. Wayne Mitchell, partner with Cabot Consultants, will be sharing his perspective – one gained from a career as an executive and now an executive search consultant. Whether you consider yourself an executive or are just starting your career, implementing a few tips from Wayne will make you stand out from the
