November 5th 2014: What is permaculture? Can it help us sustain longer, healthier lives?

Today we will hear from Ted Bahr, a certified Permaculturist and founder of Prairie Sage Permaculture. In the next hour, we are going to discuss what is the prognosis of the environment and what we can do to be involved in a far more healthy way to live and survive.

Getting involved in sustainable growth, nature, foods, choices, organic options, and learning what this might entail, is actually fascinating and very relevant in the times we face. Please tune in to consider ways to save the earth, the planet, our children, and longevity of life for all.
