November 6th 2014: Traveling on the Rod of Feelings

Doug Bennett considers himself a "head person"— one who interacts with the world primarily through conscious thought, reason, rational discourse, words, etc. So WHY is he talking about feelings? He grew up believing feelings are not important and not to be discussed and, added to that, he's a scientist. However, his study of quantum physics made him realize that feelings and connection are the keys to our power in the universe. He states, "The material journey turns out to be a journey of feelings." If you are a head person, too, you might want to listen to what he has to say and get the "rest
