November 6th 2014: Bold Leadership

This week we have two guests that are wonderful examples of being a bold leader. One from the Alaskan shores the other a female pioneer in military leadership. Our first guest is Stacie Stigar. She gave up a successful corporate job with the United Way to follow her dream of being her own boss. Stacie currently is the owner of the UPS Store in Palmer, Alaska, which ranks as one of the top stores in the US states. She will share some of her marketing and customer service strategies that helped her achieve such a top ranking. Our second guest is Ret Col Jill Morgenthaler, who was one of the first
