November 25th 2014: Increase Your Leadership Value (Iceberg), by Raising Your Awareness of Others

Have you ever wondered how some leaders, magically connect with their audience within the first 90 seconds? We'll explore effective ways to learn what others are experiencing, connect with them, and how to support them in the workplace. During today's show we will visit with Managing Partner Josh Porter of Hawaii's Lex Brodies Tire Company on the Island of Hawaii. Lex Brodies Tire Company owns four tire stores, a fast lube, and has added a commercial tire division. In 2013 Lex Brodies sought out and implemented Social-Emotional Intelligence training for its managers. We'll discover the kin

Josh Porter

Josh Porter is a managing member and partner of Hawaii Tire Co, doing business as Lex Brodie's on the Big Island of Hawaii. He started with the company over 10 years ago, after a stint in corporate America, with the desire to help grow the family business. While working on a new business model and adding new tire and auto repair locations, Josh facilitated the opening of the first FastLube on the island. This year he went after the commercial tire business, which is currently growing thanks to a new partnership. Recently Lex Brodies was approved to construct the island's largest automated car wash.
