November 25th 2014: Marriage Mediation

John Fiske has been helping couples stay married on good terms for decades by providing marriage mediation services. When does marriage mediation make sense? When different spending patterns are threatening a marriage, when loss of a job and long unemployment have caused high levels of stress, when a couple is considering divorce but thinks that renegotiating their relationship might save their marriage, when a couple is planning to form a stepfamily, when the honeymoon phase has ended and a couple wants help figuring out how to keep the sparkle in their relationship -- all of these are situat

John A. Fiske

John A. Fiske is an award-winning family mediator and mediation trainer who has been mediating since 1979. He practiced law in New York City and then in Boston for 18 years before he shifted into family mediation. He co-founded and served as President of the Massachusetts Council on Family Mediation, has been co-chair of the Boston Bar Association Family Law Section, and for the last several years has been co-chair of Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education's annual Family Law Conference. He has mediated more than 2,000 divorces, separations, and post-marital contracts to help couples stay married. Since 1982 the sign on his door has said, "Upheavals Do End." He is often quoted in loc
