November 24th 2014: Special Encore Presentation: Having it All Together: A Reframe

Have you ever tried to project an image of perfection? Have you strived to look, act and speak in a way that shows you've got it all together? If you answered 'yes' to either of these questions, you are not alone. While the accumulation of all of the accoutrements of a "finished product" may gain us entrance to the clubs into which we seek membership, it can also be the source of unhappiness, hollowness, disappointment and even our own undoing. What if "having it all together" actually meant having the awareness that we are all learners making our way through the journey of life? What would
