

Communicating from the Heart: The Empowered Mother Daughter Relationship Archives Available

December 02nd 2014: Claiming Your Own Power!

Join us this week as we discuss a topic that can often be challenging for mothers and daughters: Claiming your Own Power. We will be joined this week by two guests, Mother and Daughter, Aurora Juliana Ariel, PhD and Mariah Brown. Both are very successful accomplished women who were each finalists for Hawaii Business Woman of the Year. Mariah was the winner in the for-profit category. With our guests, we will discuss the intricacies of the mother daughter relationship and what can come forward when one or both is very successful. We'll ask a number of questions and provide our responses

Featured Guests

Aurora Juliana Ariel, PhD

Aurora Juliana Ariel, PhD, was one of seven finalists for PBN's Hawaii Business Woman of the Year. With 40 years of pioneering work and dedicated service in the fields of Neuroscience, Psychology and health, and a host of advanced protocols, rehabilitation models, courses, and products now in place. Had her mother not become severely mentally ill when Aurora was 19, Dr. Ariel says her life would have been very different. Catalyzed on a quest to uncover the cause of suffering and a cure, her timely work and landmark discoveries resulted in the development of a breakthrough psychological healing system, TheQuest and advanced protocols that have had miraculous results with conditions once th
