December 19th 2014: The Power of the Youth Spotlight: Hazami Barmada

In this episode, we featured Hazami Barmada, whose involvements in social activism and Arab empowerment have brought many global issues to the public's attention. Hazami shares with us her experiences in witnessing the situation of conflict in the Middle East as well as the large number of people, especially children, who have been displaced from their homes because of the amount of violence. She tells us about the incredible impact that young children caught in the conflict have on her and the message of humanity and hope that they were able to convey through art, which later became the "Pe
