Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
December 24th 2014: From Mourning to Morning

Rabbi Melvin Glazer dedicates his life to helping people face loss because he has faced loss. Drawn to a life of service, he became a rabbi and then an expert in death and bereavement. What does he have to share about weaving Biblical stories into our dealings with death? Can he help us to see how to bring some faith into our grief? Whether we are Jewish, of some other faith, or of no faith at all, losing loved ones inspires some of the deepest spiritual questions we will ever face in our lives. What meaning do we find in our losses? Both a rabbi and a grief counselor, Rabbi Glazer intersects
