Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
December 31st 2014: Leaning into Love

When a lifelong practitioner of Buddhism, philosophy and healing loses her husband, how does she grieve? Elaine Mansfield observed her own experience, capturing her grief in a beautiful book and ultimately answering the call to support others through their losses as her life's calling. Unafraid to explore each aspect of her experience, the things she noticed about her grief became a book, Leaning into Love, in which she shares her own deep sorrow for the good of others. By the time she faced this most profound death, she knew well how to allow her experience, how to invite it. But this loss pu
