January 13th 2015: My Story of Walking with Alzheimer's

Mark Telego's experience of family caregiving for his mother began after his father died. She'd lived with insulin dependent diabetes for 45 years, and with what for 9 years seemed to be Alzheimer's disease. He published his website, <http://www.eyes-n-ears.net>, in Dec 2013, 14 months after her death. He talks about his life, career, and family caregiving. He explains his work on documentary and video films and his website. He explains Quality of Life and the challenges to Quality of Life experienced by family caregivers and their family members living with Alzheimer's disease. He discusses way
