

PI's Declassified!
Thursday at 9 AM Pacific
January 8th 2015: The Gift of Exoneration
Series: David Camm

David Camm, a retired Indiana State Trooper, arrived home after playing basketball at a local church one evening and found his wife on the garage floor shot in the head. Her pants and shoes were removed, and her shoes were on top of the family's Ford Bronco. Their two children, ages five and seven, were found in the backseat of the car, fatally shot as well. David was arrested two days later. In an unfortunate case of police tunnel vision, followed by prosecutorial misconduct, a palm print inside the car was ignored and a prison sweatshirt found next to his wife was dismissed. A name was print

Read more

Tune in

Thursday at 9 AM Pacific Time
on VoiceAmerica Variety
Channel

Questions? Comments?
Call In Live!
Toll Free: 1-866-472-5788
Intl: 001-480-398-1394

Featured Guests

David Camm

David Camm resigned from the Indiana State Police in early 2000 after spending ten years as a well-respected road trooper. He served on the Emergency Rescue Team (ERT) and received his department's Medal of Honor for risking his life to save a drowning man.

Read more

Bill Clutter

Licensed private investigator Bill Clutter began his career in 1985 when he was hired to serve the Voting Rights Act suit against 5 elected commissioners for denying minorities representation in city government.

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

