January 13th 2015: Bring It On! Take Control of Your Own Life

Have you ever wondered "How does his name sound with mine?," "Will he make a good father," "Will we have a big or a small wedding?"...BEFORE the first date?! Dating is not an age old tradition but is fairly recent as more and more people make their own decisions about love. But, is there a double standard in dating? Meet my guest this week...Heather Jones is a "dating expert." She puts a spin on the dating world and questions what society deems to be socially acceptable with regard to sex and dating. Heather will discuss her book "F*#k the Double Standard in Dating" and will give tips and advice

Featured Guest

Heather Jones

Heather Jones is a 'dating expert' because she's taken a ride on the rollercoaster of love just like everyone else! She puts a lighthearted yet honest spin on casual dating and relationships and has a "bottom line" approach to advice that will leave you with clear and concise answers to today's dating dilemmas. She is happily single and has been actively casually dating and documenting her experiences for the last ten years. She recently published a book called "F*#k the Double Standard in Dating," and she has received positive reviews from both men and women. In her book, Heather talks about how to casually date and have a great time doing it. Heather has a very active social life and I
