January 12th 2015: Special Encore Presentation: Common Financial and Accounting Errors in Small Business

On today's episode of The Second Stage the hosts are joined by Audit Director and Partner at McGladrey, Roger Prough. Roger will offer insight into common accounting errors he and his team uncover when auditing small business financials as well as suggestions for rectifying. A few of these common and easily correctable mistakes include: improper cutoff of revenue transactions and lack of segregation of duties. During today's discussion you will hear how simple internal controls can prevent a much bigger issue such as fraud. Don't miss this episode to learn more on how you can recognize and
