Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
January 28th 2015: Getting the Most out of Life

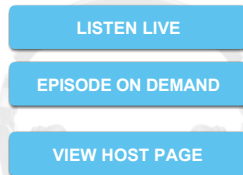

Through the loss of two of the most important people in her life, Marilyn Ababio became deeply interested in supporting others to make the most out of their lives, and their deaths. Compelled to make her work accessible to people who might not otherwise get the support they need for the end of their lives, she began a program for her local county government called Getting the Most out of Life. How did Marilyn actualize her dream of bringing her mighty skills to bear in underserved populations? What supported that mission and helped her along the way? How do her experiences of loss find their w
