January 29th 2015: Investigating Identity Theft

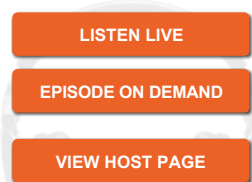

No one is safe from identity theft. It is an epidemic fueled by fraud and deceit. Unfortunately, it is more than a financial risk; it can involve medical services, diagnoses and other details stored in your permanent medical file. Victims of identity theft have their credit ruined, tax refunds diverted, and crimes committed in their name. The results of identity theft can be life-altering and private investigators are often called to assist. One experienced Private Investigator and Identity Theft Expert is Carrie Kerskie. Tune in to hear Carrie's viewpoint on conducting ID Theft investigations
