Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available

March 24th 2015: Human Rights for Family Caregivers and Family Members Living with FASD

Jeff Noble is the Founder and CEO of Noble Initiatives 2014, <http://fasdforever.com/>, which provides hope and education to people caring for someone living with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD). He talks about his own experience of family caregiving for FASD, his on-line applications, and his work with his partner, Tara Soucie, providing training in the fundamentals of FASD. He identifies what he sees as the most challenging of the challenges to fairness that arise in the general community and in schools, and when individuals are not well enough to make decisions for themselves. He disc

Jeff Noble

Jeff Noble is the Founder and CEO of Noble Initiatives 2014, an organization that provides hope and education to people caring for someone living with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) through online applications, <http://fasdforever.com/>, and in-person training sessions, demonstrations and consultations. He is a helper, a leader and an innovator. His focus is FASD, but his expertise is building community through social media. Using an interactive yet personal approach he delivers relevant, useful and need-to-know information to help and support front line workers, educators and family caregivers of those living with FASD. He's the author of an E-Book
