March 26th 2015: NEVER say NEVER

How many times have you declared you would NEVER do something and down the road you were totally committed to it? When I look back, I remember quite a number of them. Some of the time that I would NEVER do, turned out to be pretty good. Not always, but more often than not. Not long ago, a friend shared a network marketing company with me and it is one of those things I said I would NEVER do. I said "No," and he gave me their products to try. I loved them. But I said , "No." and he let me look at the compensation plan. I said, "Maybe." After drinking the energy drink and feeling wond
