Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
April 15th 2015: Home at Clarehouse

At the end of life, we want to feel at home, even if we can't BE at home. After a career in nursing, working with very ill patients, Kelley Scott saw the need for a home place for dying people and set about to fill that need. The social model on which her hospice is based prioritizes comfort, love and care in a home-like environment, helping those who live there to end their lives in the best way possible. Kelley has made it her mission not only to run Clarehouse, the hospice home she started, but to consult with other people across North America who share her passion for filling the tremendu
