April 23rd 2015: The Making of a Mystic

When most of us hear the word "mystic" our minds take us back centuries to find an old bearded man, in a monk's robe living in isolation, devoted to a life of prayer and spirituality. But Paddy Fievet doesn't fit that image and she says there's a modern mystic in each of us. She says that a modern mystic is a woman (or man) who understands life deeper than the ordinary five senses allow and, has not only awakened to her/his profound sense of intuition but utilizes it daily. The modern mystic, according to Fievet, knows her talents—her spiritual gifts—and through appreciation does her best to

Featured Guest

Paddy Fievet

Paddy Fievet spent the first fifty years of her life following Southern society's directives for a conventional life. After decades of becoming the period at the end of society's sentence, she was barely surviving. To thrive, she turned to the Divine for direction. Embracing her intuition as the voice of that Divine connection, she was led to travel the world to rediscover her authentic self at deeper, more meaningful levels, eventually earning a Ph.D. in Metaphysics. Through this transformational awakening she realized that instead of just living, Life desires to express itself through each of us. She has authored "When Life Cried Out and "Making of a Mystic." Now her third book is in pri
