April 23rd 2015: Game Changing Leadership with John Mattone

You'll often here me say that leadership is not a level or role it is a privilege that needs to be taken with great care and character. As leaders get more successful they can often lose sight of their impending failures. As your guest, John Mattone says, "Failure almost always precedes success." Why is that you might ask. Hubris is often found in leaders as they gain power and success and it can blind you to your own personal core and character. The world is littered with failed leadership. Join me with John Mattone, bestselling author, coach and speaker to learn how to stay on top o
