May 22nd 2015: Coaching: Is it Right for You?

Many leaders are talking about coaches – either because they have one or they have been told they should have one. But, when does a coach really help? How should you use a coach? How do you select a coach (or know if the one you are working with is doing the best job for you)? Stephen Marshall, this week's guest, has been on both sides of the divide. He was responsible for hiring coaches when he worked at Siemens and he is now coaching executives.
