May 26th 2015: Gender Pay Equality: How to Make Real Progress

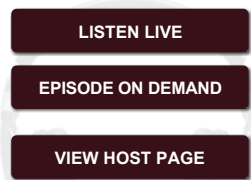

In her Oscar's acceptance speech, actress Patricia Arquette made an impassioned plea for gender pay equality for women everywhere. Since then, it seems everyone has voiced an opinion, from Marc Benioff to the Pope. Game-Changing Women Radio executive producer Jenny Dearborn's take: "It's time for organizations to examine, admit to, and erase their pay gaps. As employees and consumers we must hold companies accountable to right the decades of wrongs in denying women equal pay." It's time to get the facts and move this important challenge forward in our global workplace. The experts speak. A
