Nancy Greene

Running a business is like walking through a minefield. One bad step and KABOOM!! You and your business are done for. Tired of watching small businesses kill their livelihood because they were not properly protected, Nancy Greene, Esquire ensures while you're out doing what you love and growing your business, you aren't always watching your feet for landmines. An Amazon best-selling author, a member of the National Association of Professional Women, a NAPW Woman of the Year 2012/2013, and a member of the EWomen Network and the Women's Speaker's Association, Nancy loves helping other women business owners thrive in today's litigious society. Opening her own law practice in 2013, Nancy unde
