May 29th 2015: The new documentary Project Enye, summer cooking with Chef Troy, and a big casting announcement from Club 5150

There are more than 16 million first-generation American born Latinos in the United States, and Project Enye (ñ), a new multi-platform documentary project, is not only looking to give that generation a voice but also a connection to a community of people just like them. Denise Soler Cox and Henry Ansbacher share the details of Project Enye and how $1.60 can help fund a campaign that is the nation's first socially driven effort to count "Enyes" in America. For more information, visit projectenye.com and use #EnyesCount on social media. Then, with summer just around the corner, Chef Troy has
