Featured Guest

Anne-Marie Ilie

Anne-Marie Ilie is a talented, intelligent and beautiful young woman whose life experiences have shaped her approach to problem solving and decision-making and have enabled her to succeed in very different circumstances. Today, she leverages her experience and employs problem-solving and decision-making as the trademark of her success in the role of government lobbyist in Romania. She speaks 5 languages, which she employs very effectively in making business transactions with international partners and in 2007 she became Miss Belgium - an experience that exposed her to a highly competitive industry, to high-powered wealthy individuals and prepared her for the challenges that she deals with
