

Today's Inspiring Women Archives Available June 04th 2015: Resilience

This week we have two women who will share how to be resilient. To be resilient you need to be strong and flexible with the ability to recover. Our first guest is Marti MacGibbon whose life story is like a Hollywood thriller, and comedy all rolled into one. She has bounced back from being trafficked to Tokyo and held by Japanese crime figures. She escaped but it left her traumatized, homeless and on drugs. Today Marti shares her sure fire tips on how to overcome adversity and change your life. Our second guest is Dr Princess Fumi Hancock who is an African Princess. Princess Fumi was being gr

Marti MacGibbon

Few professional speakers have a personal comeback story as riveting and inspirational as Marti's. She inspires people everywhere with her sure-fire tips on how to overcome adversity and change your life. Marti has recovered from and triumphed over nightmare experiences such as being trafficked to Tokyo and held prisoner by Japanese organized crime, homelessness, domestic violence, post traumatic stress disorder and hard-core drug addiction. Marti MacGibbon, CADC-II, ACRPS, CAPMS, is an inspirational speaker, standup comic, certified mental health professional, and author of the nationally award winning memoir, Never Give in to Fear: Laughing All the Way Up from Rock Bottom. She is an ex
