Leading Conversations with Cheryl Esposito

Leading Conversations Friday at 10 AM Pacific

June 19th 2015:Special Encore Presentation: The Essential Moment: Click!

Cheryl Esposito welcomes Carl Studna, world-renowned photographer, teacher, and author of CLICK! Choosing Love... One Frame at a Time. Carl's intimate portraits of influential people ranging from Paul McCartney to His Holiness the Dalai Lama, are published and known worldwide. Why do photos matter? Carl says they are a "split moment in time" that is forever stilled. His work is to love the moment into being...with patience, compassion, and a way of seeing that allows the moment to reveal itself. People often tell him that they hate having their photo taken – even celebrities whose photos ar

Carl says they are a "split moment in time" that is forever stilled. His work is to love the moment into being...with patience, compassion, and a way of seeing that allows the moment to reveal itself. People often tell him that they hate having their photo taken – even celebrities whose photos are seen around the world. Carl sees his role as helping them through the door of self-doubt, self-judgment and f
