Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
July 1st 2015: A Song for Lost Angels

Kevin and Brian were in love and successful in their careers when they decided it was time for parenting. After a long search for a child, they were offered three; triplets who were at risk and without anyone to care for them. As a result of their excellent parenting and the help of a large community and family, they brought their children through their early challenges into health and well being. Wrapped in the love of two parents, numerous dogs, aunties, uncles and grandparents, the kids defied early expectations. The future looked bright. But just a year after Kevin and Brian formed this br
