What would happen if you weren't afraid of making a mistake? Would you choose a different path in life? Would you make new choices and be bold in your actions? This week we are joined by Diane Musselman, creator and owner of Dancing Forward Productions. She will share with us her insights, challenges and life principles that have led her to leaving a 20+ year career as a speech pathologist in order to follow her uncharted path in the world of film writing, producing and acting. You hold the key to unlock the truth of who you are. The time has come to open the door!
