August 20th 2015:What Works for the New Era of Business with Bill Hawkins

No doubt, leadership is the hallmark of all great companies, but some lose their leadership way while others manage to maintain great leaders and sustain their business presence for decades. My guest this week is Bill Hawkins who has seen all levels of leadership both from inside some of the world's best companies and also as an expert on leadership. The Economist named Bill as one of the most credible executive advisers for the new business era. Bill and I will be talking about what it will take to lead in this next century. We will break some of the organization sacred cows that simply d
