August 21st 2015: Remembering Raechel: Encounters with a Human-ET Hybrid

My guest, Helen Littrell, shares her memories of getting to know a young Human-ET hybrid woman in the 1970s named Raechel. Helen's experiences are documented in the book, Raechel's Eyes. During this first part of a two part interview, Helen shared events that included discovering the extraterrestrial background of Raechel, meetings with a Colonel from the highly classified Four Corners military base in Nevada, learning about the "Humanization Project" to integrate ET-Human hybrid people into mainstream human society, encounters with Men in Black and military abduction teams (MILABS), communic

Helen Littrell

Helen Littrell is a co-author of Raechel's Eyes, which documents her fascinating encounters in the 1970s with a young ET-Human hybrid woman named Raechel. This young woman from the stars was part of a covert military-extraterrestrial collaboration called the "Humanization Project", which attempted to integrate extraterrestrial visitors into mainstream society. Helen Littrell operates a medical transcription business and serves as a freelance editor and consultant for a major medical publisher. She has also authored six medical terminology books. Helen Littrell currently lives in a rural area of southern Oregon. To request a signed copy of Raechel's Eyes or to speak with Helen Litt
