Turning Hard Times into Good Times Tuesday at 12 Noon Pacific

August 25th 2015: What are the Gold/Dow and Silver/Dow Ratios Telling Us?

Franklin Sanders returns and Malcolm Davidson visits for the first time. Few hard money professionals better understand the spiritual pathology of fiat money than does Franklin Sanders. Fiat money is simply legalized theft. Its institution in the global economy especially since 1971 funded a murderous orgy of death and riches that has now pushed the world to the precipice of a global financial hell on earth. Sanders will comment on some major fundamental indications pointing to an end of this orgy including the Dow-to-Gold and Dow-to-silver ratios. He will provide some advice as to avoid mains

Franklin Sanders

After spending two years in the US Army, Franklin attended graduate school at Tulane and the Free University of Berlin. In 1980 he opened a gold and silver brokerage, and began publishing The Moneychanger newsletter (www.the-moneychanger.com). In 1990 Franklin and 15 others were indicted in federal court for conspiracy to delay & defeat the IRS and willful failure to file income tax returns because he had opened a gold and silver bank and had not filed income tax returns since 1975. On July 9, 1991 a jury found him and all other defendants not guilty on all charges. On a related state charge fomented by the IRS he lost but his incarceration completel
