Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
August 26th 2015: Emerging Hope

When you lose a child, what makes the difference between collapse and reintegration into your life? Often it is a loving person who has been there and supports the process of recovery while recognizing the feelings of loss. When the Richardson's daughter died, they were cast into the world of crushing loss, but came through it determined to help others traveling the road they had been on. So Melinda Richardson got certified as a grief coach and a mediator and began offering hope and help to others who were experiencing profound loss. Without bypassing the feelings of deep mourning, their organ
