August 26th 2015: Special Encore Presentation:
An Upside-Down Approach to Organizational Change...

In this episode of "The SURVE Hour", you will have an opportunity to participate in a conversation with host Jim Blackburn about a uniquely different approach to organizational transformational change that emphasizes a people first, strategy second mindset. When using this approach, leadership's span of control and influence power is dramatically increased; the effects of the change resistant employees are eliminated, cycle time for the transformation is reduced, and the probability for success greatly increases. A critical element of this unique approach is the Transformation Transitional Tea
