September 01st 2015: Sustainability from Within - being the change you want to see in the world

In this first episode you will hear a little bit about Cibele Salviatto, our hostess, and what she has to bring about the theme of Sustainability as well as a deeper explanation of what would "from within" really stands for. We are starting a journey beyond going green towards the real and empowering possibility of transforming the world we live in by transcending our own limitations and obstructions. We will learn about some interesting paths of self development and self knowledge and will enhance your comprehension about how exactly you can manifest the changes you want to see in the world,
