September 04th 2015: The Year in Review: How to Access the Archived Shows to Maximize Your Health Needs

Today, at the anniversary of the completion of our first year on Voice America, Dr. Nathan will review the programs aired thus far. This will enable listeners to understand what was covered and discussed on each program so that they can streamline going into the archives to listen to the shows that most clearly meet their health needs. This will also provide an overview of the entire field of integrative/holistic medicine.
