Featured Guest

Rosie Babin

Roslinda "Rosie" Babin is the Founder and CEO of Help Our Wounded a non-profit organization that provide direct assistance, resources and support to our wounded and those who care for them. She is an Army veteran herself and a former paralegal and an administrator. She continues to care for her son full-time since he was wounded in Iraq, but has decided to put her experience to work to help other wounded and their families. Today she speaks before civic and veterans groups to inspire and motivate them to fill the gaps where the Department of Defense and Veterans Administration falls short in meeting the needs of our combat veterans. She works with the members of Congress to keep the interest
